

6.6 Codes of Conduct for Volunteers

EN has Codes of Conduct across the sport which is driven by its' core values of leadership, integrity, teamwork and excellence. Our codes require the highest standards of conduct from everyone involved in netball to ensure that their behaviour and actions meet the values and standards expected of them at all times.

6.6.1 As a volunteer I will:

- adhere to the code of conduct for volunteers
- be appropriately dressed whenever I volunteer
- listen to and cooperate with my volunteer organiser
- ensure that I follow instructions and comply with any Health and Safety regulations that apply to the volunteer role that I am undertaking
- abide by the “safeguarding best practice guidelines” when volunteering with children and young people
- exercise self-control; I understand that verbal, emotional and physical abuse of Officials, Coaches, spectators, athletes or other volunteers is not acceptable or permitted behaviour in netball
- respect the rights, dignity and worth of all people involved in netball, regardless of gender, marital status, race, colour, disability, sexuality, age, occupation, religion or political opinion
- always conduct myself in an appropriate manner
- promote this code of conduct to other volunteers, especially those new to the sport

6.6.2 I will not:

- consume alcoholic drinks or illegal substances or smoke either immediately prior to or whilst volunteering
- use Social Media technology to bring the game into disrepute or make an inappropriate comment about a fellow volunteer, coach, official, athlete or the NGB
